HTT Staff -- Home Textiles Today, 7/14/2011 2:12:43 PM

New York - Eleven Egyptian companies are joining the Egyptian Home Textile Council in the Home Textiles Sourcing Expo, which will run its second edition July 19-21 at the Jacob K. Javits Center.

The show seminar program will include a presentation about sourcing in Egypt. Ashraf El Rabiey, consul and head of the Trade Office of Egypt, will host "How to Source Duty-Free Textiles from Egypt."

The presentation will also give attendees a closer look into the Egyptian economy, the political situation and the state of the textiles industry. Rabiey will also suggest how to promote business among U.S. and Egyptian companies.

Rabiey aims to promote sourcing in Egypt by participating in the Home Textiles Sourcing Expo, saying that "Egypt is definitely open for business."

"This is the first trade show in New York that Egypt is participating in since the revolution and we are all very excited and keen on making it a success," he said.

Egyptian companies in the Expo include Artline, Booth 3306; Bait Almotrazat, Booth 3308; El Telawy Group, Booth 3310; Hesham Tex Co., Booth 3211; Kozman Textile Group, Booth 3201; Mahmoud Hamed El Ghannam Textile Factory, Booth 3326; Nile Textile Industries S.A.E., Booth 3300; Pyramids Free Zone, Booth 3219; and United Textiles, Booth 3312.
